

Christopher L. Borton, P.E., is a Senior Advisor, founder, and past Chief Executive Officer of Borton-Lawson, a Top 500, 170-person professional services firm specializing in Engineering, Architecture, and Technology. Borton-Lawson provides these services in over 35 states nationwide from its three offices in Pennsylvania. His official duties have included Engineering Design and Management, planning business objectives, developing organizational policy and finance, and overseeing all functional divisions of the organization.

He is a registered Professional Engineer in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware and Ohio. A graduate of Penn State with a BS in Engineering, specializing in Highway and Water Resources, Mr. Borton has over 40 years' experience in general civil engineering including inspection, analysis, and design of a variety of building, transportation, sewage, stream channelization, and storm water control projects, pump stations, hydrologic and hydraulic studies and site developments. Prior to founding Borton-Lawson, he served as Civil Engineering Vice President for his former employer and was involved with the flood recovery efforts in Wilkes-Barre and Johnstown, PA, and Baltimore, MD.

Mr. Borton is Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Misericordia University, Secretary of the NEPA Alliance Business Finance Corp, member of the Advisory Council of M&T Bank Corp -Northeastern PA, and Vice Chair of the Board of Directors of Paupackan Lake Association.

Chris has served as a Director of the American Council Engineers Companies - Pennsylvania; National Director to the American Council Engineers Companies, representing the state of Pennsylvania; President and Board member of the Luzerne County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers, Chair of the National ACEC PAC committee, member of the ACEC nomination and tellers committees, Chairman and Campaign Chairman for the United Way of Wyoming Valley; President and Secretary of the Wyoming Rotary Club in Wyoming, PA. In addition, Mr. Borton is a past member of the Guaranty Bank Advisory Board, Chairman of the Forty Fort Planning Commission; served on the United Way of Wyoming Valley Board of Directors; and past Chairman of the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus Advisory Board and Chairman of its Planning Committee. In addition, he served on the Strategic Planning Committee of the Board of Directors of Little Flower Manor, Wilkes-Barre, PA; and as Chairman of the Finance Committee of Holy Name/St. Mary's Church in Swoyersville, PA.

Mr. Borton is married with three grown children, enjoys fishing, golfing, traveling, and spending time with his family.